California Electric Power Company will spend $1,775,000 in its Palm Springs District during 1957 for expansion and improvement of service to its customers, Francis Crocker, Callectric's district manager, disclosed today.

The record-breaking expenditure will include over $1,390,000 for construction of new distribution lines and improvement of the company's existing distribution system within the district. It also covers expansion and improvement of electrical substations.

OVER $364,000 will go for construction of new transmission lines in the district. The company's Palm Springs district includes Palm Springs, Desert Hot Springs, Cathedral City, Thunderbird, Tamarisk, Indian Wells, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert and all surrounding resorts and communities. It is the biggest construction budget for one year in the history of Callectric service in the district and reflects Callectric's confidence in the continued growth of the cities and communities of the desert, Crocker said.

THE COMPANY'S system-wide construction budget for 1957 is a record-breaking $23,274,000, the highest in its history. It covers development of new power producing facilities, as well as expansion and improvement of transmission, distribution and general service facilities.

Over $10,765,000 will be spent on construction of new steam electric generating plants and on improvement of existing steam electric and hydro electric generating plants.

THE NEXT BIGGEST construction budget item of $6,900,000 covers construction of new distribution lines and expansion of substations throughout the Callectric service area. Transmission line construction will cost over $2,000,000.

In addition to the $23,274,000 construction budget, Callectric will spend over $1,000,000 on maintenance of existing facilities.

New Patriot Action Reported In Red Hungary

VIENNA (AP)—Hundreds of Hungarian patriots facing arrest and possibly death under the new Red reign of terror are fleeing into the trackless forests, swamps and mountains to join die-hard freedom fighter bands, refugees said today. Hungarians who risked their lives to cross the Austrian frontier to escape the return to the "proletarian dictatorship" in their homeland also reported renewed fighting between partisan bands and Russian troops.

CLASHES BETWEEN Hungarian patriots and Red army troops have increased in the past 24 hours, according to the newly-arrived refugees. They said the heaviest fighting took place in the rugged country centered around Pecs. Pecs on the Yugoslav frontier was a rebel stronghold in the revolution crushed by Soviet steel.

The pro-Russian regime of János Kadar announced Monday a new purge of opponents. The cleanup was expected to hit members of the Hungarian parliament as well as die-hard patriots.

THE HUNGARIAN refugees said it was estimated some 10,000 Hungarian patriots are holding out against Soviet and Communist Hungarian forces in the outlying provinces.

Rebel bands were said to be active in the Bakony Forest in western Hungary, the Matra Mountains in northeast Hungary, and in the swamp lands along the Hungarian-Yugoslav border.

Secrecy on Mideast Hit By Democrat

Rep. Hayes Walks Out of Closed Door Briefing

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Democratic member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee stalked out of a closed door Middle East meeting with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today charging that the administration was trying to "tie the committee's hands" with confidential information.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio) said he left the session in protest against taking secretly testimony which he believed the American people are entitled to have about President Eisenhower's request for authority to send troops to the Middle East if necessary to keep Russia out.

HAYS SAID Committee Chairman Thomas S. Gordon (D-Ill.) declined to recognize him to make a formal protest against taking Dulles' testimony in secret.

"So I just said what I had to say anyway, and left," Hays told reporters.

"I don't believe Dulles ought to be allowed to hide behind closed doors to answer embarrassing questions. It's a clear case of trying to tie the committee's hands. Even if you get the answers you can't use them because the information was given in an executive session."

HAYS' WALKOUT came as President Eisenhower urged Republican congressional leaders at a White House legislative conference to put his Middle East resolution at the top of their priority list for early action.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California said after the White House session he expects the Mideast resolution to clear the Senate Foreign Relations Committee within two or three weeks. Presumably this included action by the Senate Armed Services Committee which will start joint hearing with the Foreign Relations group next week.

Indian Avenue Light Ceremony Set for Tonight

Dedication of the new Indian Avenue street lights will be held tonight at the Indian Avenue entrance to the Plaza, where city and electric company officials will be on hand.

And when the switch is thrown, spectators will not see a sudden brilliance, but will watch as the lights build up slowly to their full brightness.

Joanne Gilbert, currently appearing at the Chi Chi, will press the button which will turn on the 74 street lights that stretch from Tachevah to Ramon Road.

Mayor Florian Boyd, one of the speakers tonight, said that the ceremonies would be carried out whether it rained or not. Other speakers will include County Supervisor George Berkeley and Chamber of Commerce President Tom Kieley.

Entertainment preceding the program will be provided by the Jack Woods Trio, which is currently appearing at Jack Casey's Rossmore Hotel.

Two Escape Auto Crash in Desert

Two motorists are today recovering from minor injuries suffered when their auto plunged over a 2-foot embankment on Highway 111 near Windy Point, rolled over and pinned one of the men underneath.

Both John Hershey, 38, of Cabazon, and William Lange Jr. 29, of Twenty-nine Palms Marine Base, were thrown from the car when it flipped over and landed in White-water River eight miles west of the city. Hershey was pinned under the wreckage, but managed to crawl out.

Negro Leaders In South Plan Policy Meeting

ATLANTA (AP)—Negro leaders of bus integration drives in three key cities have called a southwide meeting in Atlanta this week to spur their movement and to discuss the problem of racial violence.

The two-day meeting starting Jan. 10 was announced by the Revs. M. L. King of Montgomery, Ala.; C. K. Steele of Tallahassee, Fla., and F. L. Shuttlesworth of Birmingham, Ala.

THEY INVITED leaders of other drives to end bus segregation and from other "troubled areas" of the south. They will discuss how to spur their campaign to end "violence directed toward the Negro communities."

The Tallahassee City Commission Monday hurriedly adopted an ordinance giving bus drivers the responsibility of assigning bus seats so as to "distribute the weight of passengers" and to "preserve good order."

THE ORDINANCE did not mention bus segregation, which Negroes in Tallahassee have tried to end by mass flouting of a local seating law.

The buses remained idle by an emergency order issued by Gov. Leroy Collins after an outbreak of violence. An aide said Collins, who will be inaugurated today for another term, has no intention of lifting the order soon.

Sewer Bond Election Planned for March 19

A proposed sewer bond election discussion is scheduled before the city council on the 23rd of this month, at which time it is expected that the governing body will set the date of the bond election for March 19.

City Manager R. W. Peterson said yesterday at a council luncheon at the El Mirador Hotel that this bond issue would run by itself, and that the cost is estimated at $4,025,000.

A FINAL REPORT on the sewer project by the J. B. Hanauer Company of Beverly Hills is expected to be brought before the council at its luncheon meeting next Monday.

The proposed system will give city-wide sewer service. Among other particulars dis-

Safety Council Starts Membership Campaign

In a drive for members, the newly organized Palm Springs Safety Council is contacting all drivers. Indirectly, as they apply for their 1957 license tabs.

On the counter beside the license window at the Bank of America is a sign, calling attention to the applications, and local residents are invited to take one and join the organization. The cost: $1.

IN EXCHANGE for the dollar, each member will receive an identification card and windshield decal, and each indicates that the bearer is "helping to reduce the accident toll in Palm Springs."

Safety Council chairman Don Miller, in asking for members, said, "We, citizens and visitors, are the Palm Springs Safety Council. We are newly formed to help save your life by actively working on public education projects and assisting in city and school engineering problems."

"As our community continues to expand at its tremendous rate," Miller added, "we need your help in driving courteously, obeying traffic signs and regulations, and checking your car for safe operation."

HEADING THE committee on applications are Ted Land and Bob Linskey.

Applications, and the one dollar donation, may be sent to the Palm Springs Safety Council, Craig Miller Safety Fund, P. O. Box 2693, Palm Springs.

Not included in this appropriation is the expense of drapes and carpets and furnishings for a conference room.

Knowland Bid For Presidency In 1960 Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland's decision to retire from the Senate promoted speculation today that he will make a bid for the presidency in 1960.

The 48-year-old California stunned his Senate colleagues and caught California political leaders by surprise in announcing Monday that he will not seek reelection when his current term expires in 1958.

Some senators quickly concluded that Knowland, a veteran of 11 years in the Senate, will try to win the California governorship in 1958 and use it as a stepping stone to the White House in 1960.

Chamberlain Casts Deciding Votes in 'Power' Switch

A new era in Riverside County government was launched yesterday—an era of hope and encouragement for desert area residents.

The balance of power in the Board of Supervisors was abruptly switched yesterday, with the seating of Curtis Chamberlain as representative of the Third District, succeeding Roman Warren. And things immediately began to happen.

PAUL ANDERSON was elected chairman of the board, succeeding William Jones, with Chamberlain casting the deciding vote and thereby switching the balance of power.

Redistricting of county supervisory districts was brought up, and for once more than discussion took place. Supervisors directed the county council to prepare an ordinance separating Banning, Beaumont and Cabazon and an additional area as far as a mile west of the Twenty-nine Palms turnoff from the Fourth District and attaching it to the third.

PALM SPRINGS was left in the Fourth District, although other land along Highway 111 will be attached to No. 3.

The ordinance will be brought in for action in two weeks, during which time residents of the affected areas may express their opinions.

The new supervisor also called for action on a new bond issue for county building expansion, which would encompass an even larger scope than the one defeated last June.

COUNTY OBSERVERS, who have watched governments come and go and changes be made here and there with new members, were amazed with the rapidity of action.

Rain Causes Only Minor Damage Here

A rain, which city officials have called "the finest kind to test runoff and possible flood areas," covered the desert area yesterday and is continuing today.

Hardest hit of utilities was the California Water and Telephone Company, which at six last night was reporting to residents that they had received "hundreds of out of order calls."

THE CALIFORNIA Electric company reported today that they had only very minor damage, with a transformer going out in the Angel Springs area, and water seeping into some of the manholes. "But all in all everything went well and we didn't lose any power service," said Bert Wade.

Doak Davis, manager of California Water and Telephone said today that crews were completing the "repair of three or four main cables, which would throw out quite a few phones at one time," and added that the first rain of the season "usually causes a considerable amount of trouble."

Davis added that after a dry spell, the cables crack and then the first rain causes shorts. "I estimate that 35 or 40 lines were put out of order last night," said the manager.

CITY ENGINEER Frank Hamerschlag made routine inspections of city streets and flood runoff areas yesterday, and reported this morning that except for only a few spots on unimproved streets, he was quite pleased with the operation of flood runoff. Changes that will be proposed in the immediate future will be the draining of flood sewers into the Tahquitz wash, which could conceivably handle much more than its present capacity.

Repair crews will be put to work repairing some dirt curbs that have been undermined by water, as well as some unimproved streets that were damaged.

Labor Leader Calls for End To Colonialism

CHICAGO (AP)—President George Meany of the AFL-CIO Monday night urged freedom for Cyprus and Algeria and said the United States must take the lead in "denouncing colonialism."

Meany said the urgency for denouncing colonialism by the free world has never been greater as a result of the Hungarian revolution. He said a "target date" should be set for granting independence to colonized areas.

Chou, Russians Discuss New Policy

LONDON (AP) — Chinese Communist Premier Chou En-lai met Soviet leaders today in Moscow, for talks believed aimed at halting the discontent sweeping the Communist empire.

The strategy being mapped behind the Kremlin walls by leaders of the world's two largest Communist parties may determine the path of world Communism, observers said in London.

Chou arrived in Moscow Monday with a 26-man delegation and received an ecstatic welcome from the worried men in the Kremlin who have seen their destination policy lead to uprisings in Poland and revolution in Hungary.

Western observers said it was obvious Chou was called in as a fireman to help extinguish the discontent that has spread from East Germany and the other satellites to North Viet Nam in Southeast Asia.

MURRAY ARNOLD, a dramatic song and piano stylist formerly featured with Freddy Martin's Band, will open with his trio tonight in the Manor Room of the Howard Manor.

Noted Pianist-Singer Murray Arnold Opens Tonight at the Howard Manor

Pianist and Singer Murray Arnold, long-time former stellar attraction with Freddy Martin's band, opens a long engagement in Bob and Andrea Leeds Howard fashionable village rendezvous, the Manor Room of Howard Manor, tonight. Many socialites and film-lites are expected to greet Arnold and his own trio in their first Palm Springs appearance.

Rated as one of the nation's great piano artists, Arnold is also noted for his outstanding versatility. In addition to his piano keyboard artistry, Murray has a rich baritone voice, composes, conducts, arranges and writes his own special material.

DESPISE ARNOLD'S youth — he's only 35 — he's a veteran of 25 years in music. At 10, he was a vaudeville headliner, being billed as "the boy wonder of the piano." One year later, when vaudeville breathed its final gasp, he was a has-been.

However, he spent the next four years profitably, obtaining a degree at the Cleveland Conservatory of Music. After graduating from high school, he joined a staff orchestra at a Cleveland radio station. There he played vibraphone, celeste, organ and did vocals. Altogether he was on the air 15 hours per week.

A SWITCH in radio stations found him branching out as actor, writer and featured singer with the station's 15-piece band. On the side, he held down a hotel job as a singing pianist.

Bandleader Skinnay Ennis heard him and made him a member of his band for a national tour with Bob Hope.

Murray was featured with Ennis for eight months when Uncle Sam gave him a less glamorous role in the U.S. Army. But even in the Army, they couldn't keep Murray away from show business. He wrote, directed, scored, played, conducted and acted in a show for war bond rallies. He and his company toured extensively and sold more than $5,000,000 worth of war bonds.

ASSIGNED TO THE Far Eastern Services in the South Pacific, where he led a 12-piece band for the entertainment of fellow GIs, he was stationed in Manila. There he met his future wife, Midge Kurtz, who was then an Army nurse. She left the service six months before he did and waited for him in Los Angeles, where they were married in 1946.

Snow Flurries Continue to Harrass Snow Blanketed New England Area

Snow flurries continued today in the six-state New England area, already buried under a snow blanket ranging up to nearly 18 inches. Driving in the area was reported "poor," although armies of highway workers kept most roads open despite some drifting.

THE STORM'S heaviest blow was aimed at Maine where an accumulation of nearly 18 inches was reported. The storm Monday also dumped 12 inches northwest of Boston, 9 inches at Boston, and up to 8 inches in central and western Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Two Lawrence, Mass., women collapsed and died within 20 minutes of each other Monday while shoveling snow in separate sections of the city.

LIGHTER SNOW flurries also continued from lower Michigan to New England, with the heaviest accumulations ranging from 2 to 4 inches in northeast Ohio.

Meanwhile, a frigid blast of arctic air pushed out of western Montana into the northern plains, dropping temperatures by nearly 30 degrees. Overnight readings in the cold air mass hovered near the zero mark.

Memorial Services Conducted Today For Paul H. Helms at Westwood

Memorial services for multi-millionaire sports enthusiast Paul H. Helms, Smoke Tree Ranch resident, were held at 2 p.m. today from the Westwood Community Methodist Church, with the Rev. Melvin Wheatly officiating. Private services for the family were held graveside this morning at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Helms had been ill for two years prior to his death, and some months ago had left his Palm Springs home to live in his apartment in Los Angeles.

THE 67-YEAR-OLD president of Helms Bakeries, hosted President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Mrs. Eisenhower at his home during the President's stay in Palm Springs during February, 1954.

His success in the business world was amazing. He built his bakery business from a small business with 32 co-workers in 1931, to a $10,000,000 institution with 1,700 co-workers, and during this time, also became known in the sports world as a supporter of athletic events.

Building Bids Are Due Today

Bids for the removal of buildings on the City Hall site and Lienau Village are scheduled to be opened today at 2 p.m., but according to City Manager R. W. Peterson, up until noon yesterday no bids had been received.

Most of the buildings are non-conforming to city and county building codes, which may cause the absence of bids. If no bids are received, it is conceivable that the city may have to burn the buildings.

February to Be History Month

Mayor Florian G. Boyd today proclaimed the month of February as American History Month, and urged that all schools, patriotic societies and civic organizations join in its observance.

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight has asked that residents throughout the State of California join in the observance.

Editor's Corner

Oliver B. Jaynes

IT'S SO EASY TO CRITICIZE

In a recent letter to the editor the party listed all the things that "Palm Springs did wrong" in 1956. Some mistakes were made, of course, but not a word of praise was expressed for the many accomplishments of the past year.

It brings up the old problem of having so many more critics than civic workers in a community. The favorite expression of people who find so many things wrong is: Why didn't "they" do that or why don't "they" do this. "They" are the community workhorses who volunteer to do so many civic jobs. These people are constantly being criticized because they are out doing things. They are mostly volunteer workers who are paid nothing for their community service work.

It would be well for more of us to be thankful that the community has these willing workers and to be a little more appreciative of their efforts. It's so easy to criticize—and to be wrong when one doesn't have all the facts. Getting in and helping gives a person a very different viewpoint.

The Desert Sun is often criticized for not being more critical of affairs in Palm Springs. We believe that it serves little purpose unless it is constructive. Then too—it is pretty hard to "jump on" people and organizations who are doing the best they know how in the civic services they perform.

For the most part the voluntary workers of any community get little thanks. Let's be a little more appreciative here in Palm Springs of our civic slaves. Let's give them a warm greeting and a pat on the back for what they are doing—whether it's for the Community Chest, the Desert Museum building, the Chamber of Commerce or any of the scores of projects that are always under way.

Better still—get in and help!

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Communism—Top Flop of 1956

KINDLEY AIR BASE. Bermuda.—The title to Top Flop for 1956 goes to international Communism. As Dr. Samuel Johnson once said about a poor novel he was reviewing, "You don't have to eat the whole apple to find out it's rotten." In the same context, a man doesn't become an expert by a week's trip to Europe, but expertise is not required to see that Russian imperialism, by whatever name, has sprawled on its face the full length of its satellite borderland.

It's possible to wonder, with our refugee plane waiting here in the sunshine for the New Jersey fog to lift, why Americans ever took Communism seriously as a social rival of the West. Any system that is abhorrent to masses of people, which drives men, women and children before it like a fiery blast, is as sure to fail in our mid-century as the cock is to crow at daybreak.

PROPAGANDA of the printed word and the spoken word by modern methods has outlasted the ways of tyranny-by-ignorance and tyranny-by-lie. Today of the truth will out. And when it "outs" there is no chance to suppress all the people of any nation all the time.

The exodus of a tyrannized people is at least as old as Moses, and we Americans have seen it happen many times in our history, whether it resulted from the Irish potato famines or the downfall of kings in Middle Europe. The Hungarian refugees of today are a current instance of an old truth, or to give it the light of Christmas, the recurrent birth of human faith in a better world somewhere—beyond a border, beyond the seas, beyond the firmament of heaven.

HUNGARIANS COMING

over the frontier are beginning to show up with lapel emblems proclaiming "Free Hungary!" This presages the forming of an exiled government, official or otherwise, which will be in alliance with those brave patriots who stayed behind to continue the rebellion.

We must not forget that the Hungarian revolt is something special. The prison-break of Yugoslavia in 1948 had its Tito, but the Hungarian movement may be even stronger for having no leader with his inevitable human fallibilities.

The United States and the United Nations would be within their rights to declare leaderless Hungary a Soviet-occupied country and not a sovereign state. If anything is needed to hang a world-visible neon sign of "Slave Master" around the Kremlin's neck, this would do it. All the guns and tanks in the Kremlin's arsenal cannot subdue a leaderless revolution or regain the dread prestige in which Russia was apparently held in Europe.

BUT COMMUNISM'S failure does not solve Europe's problem. Europe is, and long has been, a series of unwieldy economic links which heavy-handed blacksmiths—Napoleon, Hitler, Communism and, in a special way, One Worlders—have failed to make into a lasting chain. They have all failed because, along with an admirable desire to achieve economic unity and thereby self-sufficiency, has gone a crass ignorance of the human affinity for nationalism and, very often, a crass arrogance and lust for power at the dictatorial level.

But West Europe today offers the blueprints from which Europeanism-with-nationalism might well be constructed. The West Germans have a Federal Republic with nine states or semi-nationalities. The Bonn Constitution aims at preserving these nationalities, so that Bavarians, for example, will be safe and separate from Hanoverians and also safe from the central government. The Constitution makes it mandatory for the Bonn government to receive 40 per cent of the tax revenue, the States 40 per cent and the municipalities 20 per cent.

AMERICANS NEED not be reminded that Constitutions are made by men and changed by men, not only men on horseback but men on the Supreme Bench. Even so, the German Federation is an existing model that could gradually be extended with suitable safeguards to the rest of free Europe.

Another blueprint lies in Austria, not very long delivered from joint occupation of the Western allies and of Russia. Austria today is a neutral, unarmed zone whose integrity is respected out of self-interest by both sides. Like West Germany, Austria is an existing set of plans from which something bigger might be constructed.

The danger of a general war at the moment lies not in Russian aggression but in Russian failure. The resultant vacuum in the next chaos which must be bridged.

The horses go 'round and 'round at places which tracks afford. Here the circling's only done By Turf Club and County Board

After almost two years of huffing and puffing, the quarter horse track, proposed for the Rancho Mirage area, is back where it started from.

They sprung the barrier in March, 1955, and here in 1957 they are going by the little clubhouse which isn't there, again. Even if there isn't any place for the horses to run, the Desert Turf Club and the County Board of Supervisors are having themselves a merry-go-round.

Just happened to think—quarter horses don't run around the track. They go straight. But darned if I'm going to think up a new rhyme.

ONE OF THE SADDEST sights during the week after Christmas are the Christmas Tree lots with their unsold wares. Trees standing there, dejected and bedraggled.

(Especially the pink ones). They might better have been left in the forest primeval.

Which reminds me that there are still some Christmas trees standing in homes around town. If left much longer they may take root and raise the roof.

Besides, it's time the family dog got back in the living room. HABIT has a habit of sticking around. It's hard to break one, except a good one.

For instance, here it is a full week after the dawn of 1957 and some people are still writing it "1956." I got over it on January 2. But that's why The Desert Sun looked a bit late Friday.

The boys got it right the first two days—1957—but they backslid Friday and to the amazement of all, 16 people looked over the page proofs and 16 people lapsed, too.

It was really the Friday, January 4, 1957, edition of The Sun, even if it said 1956. But to make it extra good, one of the pages was dated December, as well as 1956. Thorough, by gosh.

BILL FADDEN likes his food well done. Good for the teeth. So his favorite breakfast order of coffee and toast is always trailed by a request to "burn the toast."

He went into a local cafe at dawn the other morning and made his usual plea: "Burn the toast."

From the kitchen came a solo voice comment: when the order was relayed back there: "He sure came to the right place."

EVER FEEL SORRY for yourself? Bemoan your lot? Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, 332 Pablo Drive, recommended a sure cure. They received as Christmas greetings, a letter from their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fife of Connecticut.

Describing the wintry beauty of the forests of that state, they contrasted it with the wintry forests of Hungary, filled with refugees.

Their simple comment was "we should surely count our blessings and guard the rich heritage that is ours."

I love our sunny climate—but it sure is nice to lie abed in the early morning and listen to the rain on the roof.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Joan Excellent in 'Janus'

HOLLYWOOD—I wish I knew why they keep testing, testing, testing different gals for the part when word's out that Jean Simmons has already snagged the "Nellie Forbush" role in "South Pacific" . . . I sidled on the set of "Valerie" at RKO and watched Anita Ekberg take an apple and break it in half with her bare hands. Then I walked away quietly, feeling very inadequate.

Very few of her old Hollywood chums showed for Joan Benett's opening at Hollywood's Hartford Theatre in "Janus," and it's their loss, because Joan, Junior Miss figure and all, is excellent in this not-so-much-of-a-play . . . Walter Wanger, Joan's spouse, was at the boxoffice counting the House, after which he sat in the seventh row left, nervous but happy . . . Miss Benett's ex-husband, Gene Markey, was there too.

ONE OF THE stripteasers at The Last Chance in Anchorage, Alaska, is from Cheyenne. They bill her as Shy Ann . . . The dream of everyone in Flickerville for a "Hollywood Museum" to house props and other relics of old movies and also to show old pictures seems to be coming true. The studios are negotiating for an old mansion near the Hollywood Bowl. Tourists will be welcome too.

Barbara Stanwyck sent 300 dolls to the Navajo children . . .

The angry wife asked her producer husband his excuse for coming home at 4 a.m. Replied he: "Breakfast."

Gene Tierney still can't make it so Joan Collins gets to ride "The Wayward Bus." Also Fox is still sweating it out on Ty Power for the male lead. Failing Ty, it looks like Rick Jason will drive that bus . . . Billy Eckstine and his best gal, Carolee Drake, are screen-testing for two of the top parts in Clark Gable's next "Band of Angels."

AN EXTRA WALKED up to producer Joe Pasternak on the set of "This Could Be the Night," slipped him a double-saw and said, "Today I'm working for Hungarian Relief." . . . Doris Day and John Raitt, now making "Pajama Game," may next co-star in "Pocahontas McGinnis," another musical.

Leading contender for "The Young Lions": Tony Curtis . . . I picked this up at a party from a young actor: "Gosh, I'm no actor—and I've got 20 pictures to prove it!"

Susan Hayward, never till now much of a hand at "socializing," blossomed out as quite a Hollywood hostess with a "Point-of-View" party at her home, welcoming her boy friend, Eaton Chalkley, to town from his home in Georgia. Chalkley, an attorney, brought Susan a belated Christmas gift.

Eleanor Powell put on her dancing pumps and gave the youngsters at Pacific Lodge Boys' House a treat . . . Sophie Tucker on the subject of Elvis Presley: "Man, I was rockin' & rollin' before they had motels!"

TV TOPICS—You can stop fretting now—Jack Webb, after a long stall because of the series' wobbly ratings, signed with NBC-TV for another 78 "Dragnet" segments . . . Dennis Hopper, who makes you take notice in "Giant," may get the nod from his bosses at Warner Bros. to star in ABC-TV's upcoming series, "Billy the Kid."

Jackie Cooper nailed down the telerights to "Skipper" and if he has his way he'll direct the series based on the little-boy character which first brought him fame back in those wonderful days when Wally Beery was Mr. Big on the nation's movie screens . . . I'm still trying to get used to the idea of Kathryn Grayson playing an Indian girl in the upcoming "Lone Woman" series due from CBS-TV's corner.

Elvis Presley arranged a screen-test with Hal Wallis for Doty Harmony, his Las Vegas chorus cutie . . . A secretary at NBC named her cat Ben Hur. George Gobel said, "That's an odd name for a cat." Secretary: "He was just plain Ben till he had kittens!"

The Hellinger Theater (where "My Fair Lady" Teepees) cost the landlords $1,200,000 . . . He will peddle it for $3,000,000 . . . Anthony Farrell, the proprietor of the theater, is probably one of the luckiest men in the world. Reportedly adopted from an orphanage, his foster parents left him 40-million.

Frankie gave Nacy, his ex-wife, a mink-stole for Christmas . . . "Howard Hughes' niece," says one item, "is doing the midtown places with soandso." He has no nieces, never had a brother or sister. (End of manufactured malarkey) . . .

Norma, The Dynamic Miss Douglas, TWA'd back yesterday from Movieville where she became an overnight-celebrity. She appears with Fred Waring's crew (in Gleason's spot) tomorrow evening.

VINCENT LOPEZ mourns for the night club comic who went to an analyst, where he was told to "Lie down on the couch and tell me everything" . . . Three months later the analyst quit his racket and started doing the comic's act. Warning to sober drawers: Watch out for drunken pedestrians.

Ava Gardner's quotes (in some of the mag interviews) are revealing. What she told Look will haunt her in future scandal mags. Silly girl . . . She also announced she can consume an amazing variety and quantity of firewater, Scotch, Tequila, Beer and Absinthe. In that order . . . That's the formula for the H-bomb.

Barbara Stanwyck's off-screen duty is being concerned about the destitute Apaches and Navajo Indians. She gets furious when she reads about all the money sent to the needy abroad. The Apaches and Navajos, she glares, do not own land or oil "so our government doesn't butter them up!" . . . Barbara was adopted into The Blackfoot Tribe. Her Injin name: Princess Mary Victories-II.

CECIL B. DeMille keeps working hard, albeit he doesn't have to you know. He explains: "Creation is a drug I cannot do without" . . . Howard Hughes now owns one million shares of 20th Century-Fox Studios . . . Darryl F. Zanuck owns 140,000. Zanuck's first movie job paid him $125 a week. In 3 years his wage was $5,000 per week . . .

Midtowners are still tch-tch-tch-tch about the souzeiety gal (on an alcholiday) who started stripping in Hutton's on Lexington. They threw her out. (Psychiatric-sic!) . . . Her Serene Highness signs her letters to intimates (such as Wm. Perlberg who produced her Academy Award Prize "Country Girl") this way: Grace De Monaco.

SHELLEY WINTERS, star of "Girls of Summer," makes sense: "To me temperament means simply that you care about your work" . . . Lana Turner's prized possessions include the sweater she wore in her first flicker . . .

Ethel Merman's "Happy Hunting," is her 12th straight click. Broadway's still her Streetheart . . . Elizabeth Taylor's middle tag is Rosamond. (Hi, Rosie!) . . . If Ray Milland were free the new Mrs. Milland, intimates suspect, would be Debra Paget . . . Debra drives a jewel-encrusted Caddy . . . Mario Lanza, who earned 3 million in 4 years, is broke . . . Not too long ago Wm. Holden was dropped by a studio. They said he lacked sex appeal.

JOAN CRAWFORD's valentine to ex-groom Franchot Tone (via an interview): "I have the utmost trust and respect for Franchot and gratitude for what he gave me during our marriage. If I were in need, I feel that he'd be the first to fly to my side" . . .

Toni, which over the 8 p.m. Friday night spot on NBC-TV will save money. The package costs them $18,000—a film . . . Mine cost them $40,000. Inside stuff: The reason Wm. Bendix got back his old 8:30 spot Friday nights was to stop a lawsuit by his furious sponsor.

This is why the movie studios are concentrating on giving young performers wow buildings: The teen-age audience is about 14 million . . . The punch-in-the-law sound you hear in movies is made by a sound man punching a leather pillow . . .

GLAMMER-WRECKER: Lollobrigida's photo showing her sticking out her tongue at the photographer . . . Joan Collins paid her British husband $8,000 to get lost in the settlement . . . Jayne Mansfield's refreshing candor: "Success is 80 p.c. determination and 20 p.c. talent."

NEW CONTEMPORARY Hawaiian type additions at Desert Air Hotel, to be started in January, will total nine cottages of 9,000 square feet to cost $150,000, and will feature private patios. Owner H. L. Gogerty, F.A.I.A., is his own architect and decorator.

New $150,000 Expansion Program Planned at Gogerty's Desert Air

Keeping pace with the rapid growth of the desert, Owner H. L. Gogerty is to break ground Jan. 15 for $150,000 in additions to his Desert Air Hotel and Cottages.

The expansion includes a total of nine cottages, with more than 9,000 square feet. Four of the new cottages will have three rooms each, with bath, while the five remaining units will have two rooms with bath.

Owner H. L. Gogerty, F.A.I.A., is his own architect. An avid sportsman, Gogerty is a flying enthusiast, and this winter he brought high goal tournament polo with nationally known players, to the new Desert Air Field.

IN EACH OF THE new three-room units the center room will have a large corner fireplace, with metal hood reaching to the ceiling. The bedrooms will have private, enclosed patios for sunbathing, with partial roofs for shade and individual entrances. Rooms will have telephones and will be wired for music.

All cottages will have year-round air-conditioning provided by an advance design reverse cycle heat-pump unit, with interior design and furnishings by Gogerty. He will use contemporary Hawaiian decor, with beamed ceilings.

INTERIOR WALLS will be imported Japanese parquet hardwood paneling and plaster. Plaster will be covered with attractive polyvinyl plastic fabric.

Exterior walls will be stucco and volcanic rock wainscoting and trim, with redwood siding over the wood framing.

Sliding aluminum and glass doors, and picture windows will open onto the patios. Window sash will be aluminum.

Rooms will have acoustical ceilings, wall-to-wall carpeting, dual wardrobes, including shelves and drawers, bookshelves in the living rooms, and convertible twin studio beds. Adjoining baths will have ceramic tile, with combination tub and shower.

THE ADDITIONS will bring the total cottage rooms at the hotel up to 66, plus the Compass Room Restaurant, Luau Hut Cocktail Lounge and Recreation Room in the main building.

Other hotel features are its two 3,200-foot long grass flight strips, heart-shaped swimming pool, with kiddie pool nearby, and new polo field.

School Drops Marriage Ban

OSAGE, Ia. (AP) — The high school here recently dropped its ban on married students after an Iowa attorney general's opinion termed it "unreasonable and therefore unenforceable."

The school board had passed the ban on married students last November after "anticipating a rash of these high-school marriages." Under the ban, students, who married before graduating were forced to drop out.

The board admitted that it still thought the ban was "right" and only dropped it because of the attorney general's opinion.

The White House has been the residence of U. S. presidents since 1800.

Yoximer Sons Are Honor Students

The Les Yoximers of Rancho Mirage have double reason to be happy this new year.

Their son, James, who is attending Physicians and Surgeons Dental College in San Francisco, led his class in grades for the first semester, and their second son, Donald, is an honor student at the University of Oklahoma.

James became interested in dentistry during his service in the Navy. Both boys are popular in Rancho Mirage and will be home this summer.

There are 2,300 lakes, ponds, or reservoirs in New York, of which 78 have an area of one square mile or more.

High School Highlights

By CAROL CLAPP

At a special meeting of the Student Council Ross Hensley, a Palm Springs High School senior, was appointed as new Commissioner of Athletics to replace Eugene Prieto. An estimated 250 people filled the Palm Springs Playhouse Pavilion for the annual Girl's Athletic Association-Letterman's Dance.

Music was provided by Pat De Bellis' four piece band from San Bernardino. This dance is the only dance of the year which is open to all.

THE NEW HIGH School science building will be ready for use at the start of the second semester period. The new administration building will not be ready as planned.

On Jan. 17 the G.A.A. and the Girl's League will hold their annual tea and fashion show in the high school patio after school. The "Trip Around the World" theme should prove to be a very interesting one. This event is put on annually by the G.A.A. and the Girl's League for all the girls of Palm Springs High School and their mothers.

The Drama Class of Palm Springs High School is going to present five short plays at the Frances Stevens Auditorium on the night of Jan. 30 at 8 p.m. They will be under the direction of Alex Hammond, drama instructor. The five plays are as follows: "Sparkling," a 30 minute play based on hillbilly people; "Submerged," a 35 minute story of six men trapped in a submarine at the bottom of the ocean with no way of helping their rescuers locate them.

"DORA, THE Beautiful Dishwasher" is a 30 minute melodrama. "Shakespeare's Ladies" is a play dealing with six of Shakespeare's leading ladies who, instead of talking as Shakespeare had them talk, use modern English. The last of the five plays is a short 10 minute comedy entitled "If Men Played Cards the Way Women Do."

On Feb. 2 the staff of "Smoke Signals," the school newspaper, is sponsoring a car-wash at Kenny

5 Paul's Mobile Gas Station in order to raise funds to publish more issues of the paper. It will cost $1.50 and along with this Kenny Paul's will give a lubrication job at a discount.

FAR BIGGER IN EVERY IMPORTANT DIMENSION—This year Mercury has grown bigger in every important dimension. Far more move-around comfort. For example, there's more headroom, more leg room, more shoulder room, more hip room.

WIDEST RANGE AND CHOICE OF POWER IN MERCURY HISTORY—A 290-hp TURNPIKE CRUISER V-8 engine is optional on all models. In the Montclair series the standard engine is a 255-hp Safety-Surge V-8 with a Power-Booster Fan that saves horsepower other cars waste. A 255-hp Safety-Surge V-8 is standard in the Monterey series. A special M-335 engine (335-hp) is available at extra cost in Monterey models equipped with standard transmissions.

Never before has so much bigness and luxury cost so little. For this is the biggest Mercury you've ever seen. And although Mercury has moved up to a new size class, it has stayed in the same popular price class. It represents the biggest size increase—and the biggest value increase—in the industry.

And Mercury introduces features you can't buy at any price in other cars.

Mercury's new Dream-Car Design is Mercury's alone. It is sleek, daring, clean-cut—makes other cars look plump and old-fashioned. Mercury's exclusive Floating Ride is the finest combination of bump-smothering features ever put between you and the road.

And you can get features like Keyboard Control—the most advanced automatic transmission control on any car. A power seat that "remembers" your favorite driving position at a touch of a dial. And Quadri-Beam headlights for a better pattern of illumination.

Check the low price tags in our showroom. You'll find you can get a new Big M for little more down—or per month—than for the lowest price cars. And what a lot more you get!

Mexican Charros to Ride At Date Festival at Indio

For the first time since the passing of expansive Mexican rancheros and the jingling of elaborate spurs, daring charros will ride again in Southern California.

To close the 1957 Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival, four of Mexico's famed charros have been invited to perform in an exhibition of horsemanship at the horse show arena, February 24.

The horsemen are members of the charros organization that banded together to keep alive the tradition and skills of early Mexican and California riding.

MEMBERSHIP IS limited to those who can qualify as performers and adhere to the wearing of authentic garb of the charros.

Those who participate at the Indio fair grounds have recently returned from a tour of Europe. Although charros have performed in foreign lands and eastern cities of this country, the appearance in February at the fairgrounds is the first time for Southern California.

The "Charreada" at the horse show arena climaxes a day devoted to honoring Mexico and residents of Coachella and Imperial Valleys with ties south of the border. Mexican officials have been invited to take part in the program.

FELIX GUITRON of Indio, will serve as ringmaster for the Charreada on the afternoon of the 24th. Also assisting in planning the program is Dr. R. J. Carreon, also of Indio.

Both men are well known in Mexico, and played an important role in bringing the charros to Riverside County.

Fair Manager Robert Fullenwider announced that in addition to the exhibition of horsemanship there will be Mexican music and dancing at the fairgrounds.

A FIESTA STREET dance and special program are planned for the evening of Feb. 23 as an opening for Mexican presentations at the horse show arena.

The Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival this year spans two weekends for the first time. Opening day is Feb. 16.

Hamilton Attends Parade and Game

Don Hamilton, manager of Palm Desert Valley Lumber and Neal Chadbourne of Indio, vice president and general manager of Valley Lumber, attended the Rose Parade and game New Year's day in Pasadena.

Roughing It

SALT LAKE CITY — Two 11-year-old boys were picked up for questioning after admitting to police they had stashed a tent, rifles, ammunition, sleeping bags and $80 cash atop the Hotel Congress in the heart of downtown Salt Lake City. The boys said they hauled the items to the roof with a rope hanging over one wall. They had planned to haul up dirt to support the tent poles. They told officers they planned to camp on the roof for the summer.

The invited guests for this glamorous and very social affair will begin arriving February 1. On Saturday, February 2, a fashion show luncheon will be held at Thunderbird, with the noted designer Marusia presenting the fabulous collection of gowns, which she designed for Rosalind Russell to wear in the Broadway hit, "Auntie Mame." The show will be commented by Lee Anderson, vice president of Jimmy McHugh Charities, Inc. Freddy Karger's popular society orchestra will play both for the luncheon and for the Golden Nugget Ball that night. Highlighting the weekend will be the Golden Nugget Ball at the Tennis Club, with guests flying in from all over America for the event which will re-create the days of the Old West, as the ballroom will be transformed into the "Golden Nugget Saloon."

Men are to come as cowboys and gay blades of the Old West, with gals dressing as goldiggers of the Golden West. The most captivating costume will be awarded a Rex of Beverly Hills prize. Those responsible for the event are: Jimmy McHugh, executive vice president of the Foundation; Mrs. Alphonso Bell Jr., president; Mrs. Lee Anderson, vice president; and Mrs. Jack Ellis, second vice president. Among its sponsors are Ray Ryan and George E. Cameron Jr. Many society hostesses have already taken tables and form two committees: Los Angeles includes Miss Lily Pons, Mrs. David Hearst, Mrs. Marylyn LeRoy, Miss Louella O. Parsons, Mmes. Howard Tullis, Alfred Bloomdale, Earl Jorgensen, Cobina Wright, Jack Wraether, Richard Rand, John Gibbs, Sam Taylor and Miss Audrey Gillin. The Palm Springs counterpart is represented by Mmes. J. Ross Clark II, George E. Cameron Jr., Noel Clarke, Joseph Froggatt Jr., Lloyd Frank, Edward Fallgren, Milton Hicks, Montague Herbert, W. B. Malouf, John McClure, Harry Joe Brown and Jack Kenaston.

Murray Arnold Opens Tonight At Howard Manor

Pianist and singer Murray Arnold, long-time stellar attraction with Freddy Martin's band, opens a long engagement in Bob and Andrea Leeds Howard's fashionable Palm Springs rendezvous, in the Manor Room, Howard Manor, tonight, January 8. Many socialites and filmstars are expected to greet Arnold and his own trio's first appearance in the desert resort city. His engagement comes right on the heels of his record-breaking two-year run at Los Angeles' Ambassador Hotel. Arnold, rated one of the nation's great piano artists and a "musician's musician," is noted for his versatility. In addition to his piano keyboard artistry, Murray has a rich baritone voice, composes, conducts, arranges and writes his own special material. Despite his youth—he's only 35—he's a veteran of 25 years in music, as when he was only ten, he was a vaudeville headliner, being billed as "the boy wonder of the piano."

Miss Palm Springs of 1954 Was Lovely Holiday Bride

A lovely bride of the holiday season was Beverle Ann Bell, daughter of Mrs. Ann V. Bell and the late Capt. Louis Michael Bell, as she repeated her wedding vows with William Leonard Skufca, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Skufca, of Canon City, Colorado, at a nuptial mass at St. Theresa Church. The Rev. Michael O'Donohue officiated. Given in marriage by her grandfather, William L. Kennedy of Thousand Palms, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie with chapel train. The square neckline was enhanced with seed pearls, and a tiny cap of seed pearls secured her exquisite veil. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and camellias.

Frocks of emerald green velvet and silk were chosen for the bridal attendants, Gail Derry, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Joan Ewing and Patricia McNair. All carried crescent bouquets of red carnations. Donald Griffith was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Michael Bell, and Jerry Egbert. A reception at the Palm Springs Woman's Clubhouse followed the wedding, and here decorations were in a pink and white motif. The bride, who was graduated from Palm Springs High School, was Miss Palm Springs of 1954. She attended Loretto Heights College in Denver and the San Diego College for Women. An alumnus of the University of Denver, the bridegroom is affiliated with Lambda Chi Phi fraternity. The newlyweds will reside in Denver, following a honeymoon tour of northern California.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

It's nice to have snow on our high mountain peaks... lending a Swiss touch to the Pass... but the liquid sunshine was a real novelty... it's been so long since the thirsty desert has experienced rain... It came just the way we like it, too... in the middle of the night... and after the weekend... Monday morning found Villagers... searching wardrobes and hall closets for long-unused gear... and testing out windshield wipers... It's a beauty bath for the palm trees... and soaked down into the desert... nourishing the seeds that will bring the February wild-flowers to carpet the desert...

Entertaining at the first of a series of informal affairs... Dolly Marcuse was hostess at a Sunday night cocktail party... at her Via Las Palmas home...

Among the guests admiring the newly-remodeled and spacious livingroom... and enjoying the procession of hot canapés... were the Lester Seligs, Sydney Schiffs, Howard Morris... Co. Thornstons, Samuel Salingers, Sol Lessers... Bagdasarian, Vie and Bud Graves, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strauss... the Maury Horners, Elsinore Machris (just back from Scottsdale... and pleased with her New Years present a new oil well in Texas)... the A. R. Simmons, Asher Levys, Guy Kettmanns, Ted Charltons... Dorothy Gray Brown, Rose Mints, Jerri Hopps, John Morris... Emanuel Bey of Los Angeles, who played in the concert that afternoon... Julie Taurog, Rosalyn Lang and Rupert Tumin and others...

Ethel and Jack Luccareni entertained a small group... with cocktails at their Smoke Tree home Saturday night... followed dinner at the Ranch house... Afterwards the group returned to Luccareni's to watch television... Among their guests were Elvira and Don Bleitz, the Howard McKays... Janice Chiquine, Connie Wellen of Life magazine, who is on the coast on special assignment... and the Glenn Thomases...

Here for a week's stay at the Matador... are Kurt Kaszner, star of stage and movies, and his wife Leora Dana, who is out here to do a picture... Kurt leaves the first of February for Trinidad where he will do a John Wayne movie...

Preparations Under Way For Brilliant Sponsors Ball

Committees are at work getting ready for the night of Jan. 14, when El Mirador Hotel will be the scene of the brilliant Sponsors Ball, following the invitational preview performance of the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild's opening play, "A Roomful of Roses." Mrs. John F. Luccareni, Guild president; Mrs. Bertine Tremaine Treat, ball chairman; and Mrs. Harold E. Murphy, co-chairman, have had the assistance of many social and civic leaders in making preparations for this event.

Among those serving on invitation and hostess committees are Mmes. Henry L. Dollard, Gwynne Hurrell, E. Stewart Williams, Richard Long, Edwin Fallgren, Harry Clatworthy, Joseph Froggatt, Dolph Obegfel, Victor Hugo Vidal, Mel Eaton, Norman Waters, William B. Malouf, Harry Joe Brown, Arthur Coffey, Richard Bagdasarian, Herbert Burns, Robert Backstrom and Albert Weinert.

Ball decorations will not be revealed until guests arrive. Press representatives, theatre and movie stars, and outstanding members of the Los Angeles and desert area society are expected to be in the patron assemblage. Supper will be served at flower-decked tables for twelve. Dancing to the music of Joe Moshay will continue until a late hour.

According to Michael Ferrall, popular director of the Playhouse Players, the play, "A Roomful of Roses" has everything. It is a story of suburban life, a comedy-drama, and should delight this first night audience. Ferrall promises an interesting cast, including Playhouse favorites, Marrian Walters and Tim O'Conner.

"POTTED PALM"

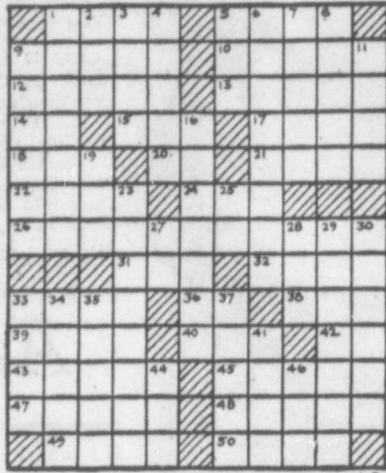

The amazing plant in this Doodle is actually a freak that grew over at the Schwine-Kitzenger Institute when somebody accidentally threw an old rubber glove into a pot of Vigoro. Dr. Schwine is excited about it and he wants to start planting them two in a pot in order to get a plant that can applaud. He figures on making a fortune by selling them to theater owners who are stuck with crummy shows. But Dr. Kitzenger feels they should forget about dopey ideas like that and concentrate on a more practical experiment. Like for instance their plan to cross an Orchid with a clinging vine so they can develop a corsage for girls who want to wear off-the-shoulder gowns.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (UP)—Films of the last World Series brought up quite a few points which will probably have much to do with the next season.

All of these points were settled or not settled, as the case may be, at the first official showing of the official World Series films. Yogi Berra was on hand as one of the heroes of the piece but Robinson didn't show, probably in deference to Don Newcombe.

Newcombe didn't do any better this time around but among the issues settled were:

1. The double play is the best joke since traveling salesmen quit visiting farmhouses.
2. Casey Stengel never, but never, is caught with his mouth closed.
3. Mickey Mantle is no Joe DiMaggio with a glove.
4. Country Slaughter was no "goat" when he missed Jackie Robinson's liner in the Yankee loss of the sixth game.
5. And Yogi Berra is a great bear hugger.

SIX HUNDRED PRINTS of the series, a 40-minute show, may be borrowed from Director Lew Fonseca at 64 Jackson Blvd., Chicago, or through any major league ball club. And they are well worth the free viewing because you'll see things you didn't even see in person.

Like those so-called double plays. A half dozen are shown throughout the film and, in every instance, the relay man is well off the bag when he takes the throw and makes the relay. Proving long-time charges that the DP has become an "automatic" call, and "cheating" is standard.

As the picture opens, there are shots of Stengel and Dodger Manager Walt Alston which would might call typical. Alston is a sphinx, Stengel's mouth is wide open.

MANTLE EMERGES as slightly remiss in the outfielding department or at least two fly balls he charged in like whippet and then chugged to a slow motion halt a few feet in front of the ball to take it on the easy first bounce. The tumbling antics of Slaughter, Duke Snider and Hank Bauer were inspirational in contrast.

The picture shows clearly that Slaughter's racing miss of Jackie Robinson's line drive in the sixth game was a right tough effort. He came hard and stabbed high and it should wipe out a lot of tough remarks about how the old warhorse ran out of gas.

A CLASSIC IS Berra's tackle of Larsen after the big fellow pitched the final strike of the first World Series perfect no-hit, no-run game. Yogi leaped high, wrapped his arms around Larsen's neck and then took a joyous leg scissors on the Larsen midriff.

Most of this was old hat to the assembled sports figures and the main topic of conversation was a debate as to whether Robinson would play ball again next season. The orators were about evenly divided but one Giant official declared firmly:

"We think he'll play for us." This may be wishful thinking, because with him the Giants will fill the park at least against Brooklyn and without him they won't draw flies. But one thing sure, last October there weren't any flies on those Yankees.

Kansas Still Tops Cagers as Little Change is Made

By NORMAN MILLER

United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—Is this to be one of the most formful college basketball seasons ever? The same four teams remained atop the United Press ratings today for the third straight week, with Kansas and North Carolina 1-2 for the fifth week in a row.

Furthermore, with comparative easy competition in store for the leaders, there appeared little prospect of a shakeup in the ratings for at least another week.

Vanderbilt was this week's only newcomer among the top 10 teams, moving up to ninth place from 11th. Illinois suffered the biggest demotion in the select group, dropping from 6th to 10th place.

KANSAS, LEADING the rating since the start of the season, was the first-place choice of 28 of the 35 leading coaches who comprise the United Press board. North Carolina and third-ranked Kentucky each attracted three first-place ballots, while fifth-ranked Louisville had one.

Not only were the teams ranked in much the same order as the previous week, but the point differences between them were altered very little. Kansas's 338 points were only one more than last week and its margin over North Carolina was increased only from 48 to 50 points.

WITH POINTS DISTRIBUTED on a 10-basis, North Carolina had 288, Kentucky 253, Southern Methodist 236, Louisville 138, UCLA 136, Iowa State 102, Oklahoma A&M 73, Vanderbilt 69 and Illinois 54. UCLA and the Oklahoma Aggies each moved up one notch from last week; Louisville and Iowa State clung to the same ranking. The coaches based their ratings on games played through Saturday night, Jan. 5.

Doug Ford Wins L.A. Open In Blanket Finish With 280

LOS ANGELES (UP)—It took Doug Ford eight years to do it, but the former national PGA champion finally has his first winter-tour golfing crown.

The husky 33-year-old fighter from Mahopac, N.Y., who is noted as one of the finest match-play golfers who ever lived, fought back the challenge of the pack in the Los Angeles Open Monday to win first prize of $7,000.

FORD'S VICTORY boiled down to a match play contest on the final nine holes in one of the greatest scrambles in PGA history.

When the gang teed off on the 64th hole of the 72-hole contest, four men were tied for the leadership; six others were one stroke behind and six more were only two strokes off the pace—the distance of one out-of-bounds ball.

But when the pressure mounted, Doug shrugged it off. While the others were steady as a rock, Doug was as steady as a rock, picking up two birdies on the final 18, taking no bogies and firing a two-under-par 69 and a 72-hole score of 280.

Right on his heels came unlucky Jay Hebert, who had a 281 and collected $3,750 after firing a four under par 67 on his last round. Hebert has been one of the top money-winners for years—but never has won a tournament.

GARDNER DICKINSON of Panama City Beach, Fla., had started the day in front, but he quickly ran into trouble and wound up with a 77—and a 285 total good for only $605.

Behind Ford, who will leave here to compete in Panama later this week, came Hebert and then a six-way tie at 283 between Jimmy Clark, Los Angeles; Tommy Jacobs, Montebello, Calif.; Dave Marr, Mamaroneck, N.Y.; Jackie Burke, Kiamasha Lake, N.Y.; Tommy Bolt, Houston, Tex., and Art Wall, Poconia Manor, Pa., all except Jacobs who just turned professional and isn't eligible, collected $1,900.

At 284 came Bud Holscher, Apple Valley, Calif.; Mary Furgol, George Bigham, Kansas City, Kan.; Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex.; Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex.; and Dow Finsterwald, Bedford Heights, Ohio, each collecting $891.67.

Littler and Vines 11, 12 Strokes Out Ellsworth Vines, Tamarisk Country Club pro finished 12 strokes out of first place with a 292. His cards were 74-73-72-73-292. Gene Littler carded 291 with scores of 73-72-70-76.

Indians, Broncs Clash Here

Redmen Face Banning Five At 7 Tonight

Papoose Quintet Visiting B's Start Festivities at 6

By LINDSAY NELSON

The luck of the schedule sends Palm Springs High School Indians against the second team rated as top contender for the Riverside County League basketball title in its second game here tonight.

Last week the Indians tangled with San Jacinto, one of the two teams listed as chief contenders and tonight they meet Banning High, the other teams.

THE BANNING BRONCS boast a brawny, tall team and last week trimmed Elsinore, also rated among the top quintets, in a fast game 37 to 35.

Palm Springs Bs, currently riding in a tie for first place in their division, tangle with the Banning Bs in the preliminary game. Because of the Tuesday night schedule, the games start at hour earlier.

THE B TEAMS of the two schools start their tussle at 6 p.m. and the Varsity teams are slated to clash at 7 p.m. That's so the boys can get their chores done and get to bed early for the next school day.

Coach Al Kazmier's lads are out tonight to upset the Broncs and stay within hailing distance of the top.

In other games tonight, Elsinore and San Jacinto tangle in a game which will have an important bearing on this year's title: Hemet takes on Perris and Beaumont goes to Coachella.

Joe Louis Seeking To End Tax Grievs

CHICAGO (UP)—A complete financial statement from former heavyweight boxing champ Joe Louis is expected to be handed over to the government today in an effort to solve his income tax troubles.

The scheduled conference between federal revenue agents and Aaron Payne, Louis' attorney, and his accountant, Arthur Wilson, will be the first of several such meetings designed to arrive at a compromise on the former boxer's payment of back taxes.

NEW YORK (UP)—Frank Gifford, who includes playing left halfback for the New York Giants among his many money-making activities, today was named the National Football League's Most Valuable Player for the 1956 season in the annual United Press poll.

Gifford, whose jobs include owning and renting apartment houses and writing a sports column, received 12 votes in balloting by 25 sports writers who covered the campaign in the league cities.

Bobby Layne, Detroit Lions quarterback who led the pro circuit in scoring with 99 points, was second with seven votes.

Only two other players received votes. Rick Casares, Chicago Bears fullback who won the rushing title with 1,126 yards, drew four votes. The other two went to Tobin Rote, Green Bay Packers quarterback who led the league's passers in yards gained in 1956 with 2,203 yards.

In every story of national importance that "breaks" there is quite often one personality who throws his weight around to give newspapermen as hard a time as he is capable of doing under the circumstances.

When doctors become the focus spot of information they are generally kind and easy to get along with. They calmly explain the circumstances, inform the reporters what he can and cannot say in order to protect the privacy of the patient under his care.

Dr. Allan Fisher of the Coachella Valley Hospital established some kind of a high in the minds of newspapermen, TV and newscastermen and just plain photographers. Needless to say, from a press relationship standpoint, the doctor did not care what newspapermen thought of his demeanor toward them.

WITHOUT A DOUBT this must have been his first contact with a large group of men representing news agencies of national importance and the brusque indifference he displayed was nothing short of a Shakespearean actor emoting before an audience. I'll doff my hat any time of the day or night to those men who mend our bodies and I know many of them who deserve just that and more.

Remember the Coachella Valley Hospital is a private institution, Doctor, and there may be occasions when that hospital may need good press in newspapers. Remember

ABOUT MARIE (The Body) McDonald—she told a good story. After the yarn was recited by Lt. Herman Zander of the Los Angeles Police Department, I followed him a la solo to his automobile.

"Well, Lt. Zander," I started as he was about to enter his automobile, "what about the story?" He turned to face me, shrugged his shoulders and said: "The weather kind of smells down here today, doesn't it?" Then he entered his police car and sped away toward Los Angeles.

Marie is still explaining her story. Her yarn is quite consistent in the number of times she repeated the same to police officers who questioned her for hours. Yesterday's metropolitan newspapers were still continuing to publish her story.

I REMEMBER little Joy Rose, daughter of Al and Roberta Rose when she was just able to toddle around the family swimming pool. You know her mother was on the stage for many years and was known then as Roberta McDowell. Well, her lovely little daughter who seems so grown up now stood in front of a microphone at the Ranch Club and gave with a song delivered in a beautifully soft song. Her performance was met with great applause.

At the Dunes I stopped to talk to Carol Lee Ladd who was seated with a group of young people enjoying dinner. She informed me that her friends had come all the way from Los Angeles to assist in taking inventory—imagine that—at the Higgins-Ladd Hardware store. In the group were Jean and Vera Carstensen, June and Bob Alexander, Jean Carroll, Jim Carter, Don Judson, Brenda Bollman and her brother, Alan Ladd Jr.

SEATED AT the next table were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Page, Fred Kehlet, Barney Hinkle, Patty Page, Jacques Page and Sue Hinkle. I like this guy, Barney Hinkle. Hardly ever hear him raise his voice in wrath but when he does, he gives with plenty and is right about 99 per cent of the time.

I'm still fuming over the treatment accorded newsmen by this Dr. Fisher.

Tubs and Bathing Through Years Have Changed in Size and Privacy

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, D.C. — Today's daily bath with tub, shower spray, soap bubbles, and phone handy generally is taken in private. No attendants needed.

But back in the days of the old Romans and Egyptians it was different. These guys had enough jewels to finance a bath in relay. One bunch to scrub the back, another to apply the rinse, and a third team to bail out the dirty tub.

The national housing center has on exhibit a bunch of tubs running back a long ways, one to B.C. According to history, the B.C. tub was claimed by the Romans as their very own, but it was borrowed from the Greeks who borrowed it from the Egyptians. Made of white marble, it weighed more than half a ton.

ALSO ON DISPLAY is an American "bat tub." It resembled a lady's upturned straw hat and was used by the whole family and always was kept close to the wood-burner in the kitchen account of it being cold on fall and winter nights.

County Fair Pacts Okehed

Under an agreement approved by the county board of supervisors this week the Hollywood Theatrical Agency will furnish entertainment for the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival which will be held Feb. 16 through 24, for a fee of $3500.

Other fair agreements were approved with Vina Mae Harmer of Santa Ana for drafting all music arrangements for the Arabian Nights pageant, an annual event of the fair, and Mrs. Pauline Herman of Coachella as supervisor of Future Homemakers of America.

Business Writer Award Created

A new annual award, designed to "encourage excellence in reporting," has been created at the University of Connecticut for business and financial writers of the nation's newspapers.

Annual awards of $1,000, $500 and $250 are being set up in the annual Loeb Award fund. An initial fund grant of $50,000 was turned over to university officials from the Sidney S. Loeb Foundation by Gerald M. Loeb, foundation president. First Loeb awards will be given in May.

Far East AF Plans to Move

TOKYO (AP)—Far East Air Forces headquarters will move to Hawaii "by July" in the consolidation of the U.S. Pacific and Far East commands, it was announced today.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer said that when FEAF moves, Fifth Air Force headquarters will move to FEAF's present location at Fuchu Air Station near Tokyo.

"Movement of FEAF personnel to Hawaii will take place gradually through the next six months," said the Lemnitzer announcement.

could just as well be called a "flying saucer." The bathers sat on a raised seat. According to the inscription on the side of the relic, the bathers, if she be a lady, often took crushed strawberries and plopped them in the drink as a "beauty treatment."

In the 1880's there was a strictly American phenomena called the "closet tub." It was something like the modern "murphy bed" in reverse and enabled the very modest ladies to lather away in private. A first in double-duty tubs dates back to the 18th century. It also could be used as a chaise or settee and cruties of the day called it a little in the naughty side. Made of wormy chestnut, it had a hinged lid that could be pulled over the top, like a quilt, "and it was possible to eat, drink and entertain friends" while soaping up and getting clean.

THE WOODEN tub, 1750-850, was something bound with wire. It was used by the whole family and always was kept close to the wood-burner in the kitchen account of it being cold on fall and winter nights.

All of which reminds me of the first bath I can remember after running past the diaper stage.

Mom used to have a galvanized tub which she used for washing duds during the week and family bathing on Saturday. Well, one unhappy Saturday, she had pulled us kids by the ears, one by one to take a sudsings. I was last.

Dried and naked I found myself alone. I climbed aboard the copper clad stove in search of a cookie stashed in the oven compartment. I tumbled and wound up back in the tub, dirty water and all, and still have a few scars to prove it.

200 Persons Acclaim Opening Concert Sunday

Sunday afternoon a group of about 200 people had the good fortune to hear an excellent concert of chamber music by two outstanding artists of international reputation. Jasha Veissi, violinist, and Emmanuel Bay, pianist, presented the first in a series of Sunday afternoon concerts sponsored by the Palm Springs Music Society. This organization is to be commended on its choice of artist and time of concert.

The audience seemed particularly appreciative, which certainly belies a common belief that chamber music is difficult to understand. Given the proper artists in the proper setting, chamber music is probably one of the most satisfying musical experiences. The Jewish Community Center is an ideal location for any musical performance, and particularly suitable for the more intimate fields of this art.

FROM THE OPENING notes of the Handel sonata, Veissi held the attention of the listeners throughout a varied and well chosen program. He demonstrated a great technical proficiency coupled with an admirable warmth of tonal quality that called forth prolonged and thunderous applause.

The breadth of understanding and line in the Brahms sonata afforded Veissi a vehicle to present the viola as a unique solo instrument, as well as an occasion in which he proved his innate musicianship. The Beethoven variations were performed with delicacy and balance; and the Schumann "Pictures from Fairyland" were delightfully fresh and sparkling.

EMMANUEL BAY gave a brilliant interpretation of the Chopin A-flat Major Ballade, and as an encore the C-sharp minor Valse. Bay's accompanying throughout, as was to be expected, left nothing to be desired. The combination of two international artists produced an incredible ensemble on the highest artistic level. The audience evinced such intense interest that the performers were recalled for numerous encores.

Coffee was served following the concert at a reception honoring Veissi and Bay. Mrs. Charles E. Dant and Mrs. Harry Tomlinson poured.

THIS CONCERT has set an extremely high standard for those which are to follow in the series. The next concert in the series being presented by the Palm Springs Music Society, is on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 24, at 4 o'clock, when the Schoenfeld Trio will perform.

Alice and Eleanor Schoenfeld have been heard here before a number of times. For their concert on the 24th they will add a pianist, Siegfried Schuteze, recently in this country from Germany. On Jan. 27, the Music Society will present the Palm Springs Civic Chorus in Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

Appreciation

PITTSFIELD, Mass. — A white-haired man visited the public welfare office and placed $5,614.95 in cash on the counter. He explained that he had received an inheritance and wanted to pay back the money given him as old age assistance during the past eight years.

JACK LINTHICUM late of the La Paz Hotel, was today named manager of the new Desert Skies Hotel, formerly known as Desertaire Apartments, at 2290 South Palm Canyon Drive. A veteran hotelman, Linthicum previously operated and managed the North Shore Tavern at Lake Arrowhead and owned a hotel in Arizona. The Desert Skies, which opened its 38 units for daily or yearly leasing a few weeks ago, features three-room suites, with modern furniture and decor.

Cathedral City Church Group To Meet Jan. 10

The regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Community Church of Cathedral City will be held Thursday morning, Jan. 10, in the church Memorial Hall, beginning at 10 o'clock. Those who are unable to attend the full day are urged to come for either the morning or afternoon session.

An interesting program has been arranged with Mrs. James Arnold speaking on "Missions In South East Asia" from 11 to 12, followed by Mrs. Lucille Paulson, an authority on Fabric Painting.

After lunch, Mrs. Edith Fry, chairman of Welfare and Friendly Aid in Palm Springs, will speak on the aims, objectives, and accomplishments of that organization. Music will conclude the program, which will be followed by a short business meeting.

Visitors are welcome, and those attending both sessions are asked to bring their own sandwiches. Coffee and dessert will be furnished.
